

POLO DINNER AND BALL THIS EVENING

The annual polo dinner and ball will be given at the Royal Hawaiian Hotel this Wednesday evening, September 6, by the Oahu Polo Club, in honor of the Maui team. The annual meeting of the Oahu club will take place in the large private dining room of the hotel at 7 p. m. for the election of officers for the ensuing year, after which the local club will give a dinner in honor of Captain Frank Baldwin and the Maui club. The polo hop will commence at 9 p. m. sharp, the Ellis Quintette Club furnishing the music. This will not be an invitational affair, as one of the papers suggested, as all of the friends of the two polo clubs, as well as the commanding and other officers of the Condor, Restorer and the local army and navy officers, are cordially invited to attend the hop. A dinner of exceptional excellence will be served at the Hawaiian Hotel tonight by Chef Wyman.

There is no getting away from the fact that the CRITERION is ever becoming more and more popular as a gentleman's resort.

The excellence of the liquors dispensed has much to do with the extensive patronage enjoyed and courteous attendance and elegant appointments does the rest.

C. J. McCARTHY, Proprietor,
Corner Hotel and Bethel Streets.

Kastol

When you attempt to give a child Castor Oil against its wish and repugnance, and after many minutes of persuasion and golden promises and maybe a little force such as holding the child's nose while you pour the oil down its throat, then you will probably realize how much worse the condition of the child is than when you first mentioned the oil to it. Now you can obviate all this by giving which can be taken without any "doctoring" and willingly repeated by any child who has tried it once. Sold in 25 and 50-cent bottles at

Kastol
